GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Each of the parties to the transaction to which this escrow relates (the "Parties") agrees, understands and acknowledges that CLOSED ESCROW, INC. is acting as escrow holder in connection with this transaction and is not acting as a trustee or in any other fiduciary capacity. CLOSED ESCROW, INC.'s duties shall be limited to safekeeping of such money and documents received by it as Escrow Holder and for the disposition of such money and documents in accordance with the written instructions accepted by it in this escrow.

All funds received in this escrow by CLOSED ESCROW, INC. shall be deposited in a non-interest bearing account (the "Escrow Account") with a federally insured financial institution (the "Depository"). CLOSED ESCROW, INC. may also deposit escrow funds for other customers for unrelated transactions to the Escrow Account.

EACH OF THE PARTIES AGREES, UNDERSTANDS AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: THE ESCROW TRUST ACCOUNT IS NON-INTEREST BEARING; NO FINANCIAL OR OTHER BENEFITS WILL BE EARNED BY OR PROVIDED TO ANY OF THE PRINCIPALS WITH RESPECT TO FUNDS HELD IN ESCROW AS A RESULT OF MAINTAINING THE ESCROW ACCOUNT WITH THE DEPOSITORY.

2. Escrow Holder deposits funds received on the Parties, behalf in state or federally-chartered banks that are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). FDIC deposit insurance coverage applies to a maximum amount of $250,000 per depositor for deposits held in the same legal ownership category at each bank. For example, funds held on the Parties behalf in an account maintained by Escrow Holder will be combined with any individual accounts held directly by the Parties at the same bank. The Parties are responsible for monitoring the total amount of deposits that are owned directly or indirectly by the Parties in any one bank. If the Parties have questions about FDIC deposit insurance, contact their financial or legal advisors or go to <http://www.fdic.gov/deposit/deposits/index.html>. Escrow Holder doesn't guarantee the solvency of any bank into which funds are deposited and we assume no liability for any loss the Parties incur due to the failure, insolvency or suspension of operations of any bank or the $250,000 FDIC deposit insurance limit.

3. Escrow Holder shall not be responsible or liable in any manner whatsoever for the sufficiency or correctness as to form, manner of execution or validity of any documents deposited in escrow, nor as to the identity, authority or rights of any person executing the same, either as to documents of record or those handled in this escrow. Escrow Holder shall not be required to take any action in connection with the collection, maturity or apparent outlaw of any obligations deposited in this escrow, unless otherwise instructed. Escrow Holder shall not be liable for any of its acts or omissions done in good faith, nor for any claims, demands, losses or damages made, claimed or suffered by any party to this escrow, excepting such as may arise through or be caused by Escrow Holder's willful neglect or gross misconduct.

4. Escrow shall close on the date set forth in these instructions. However, Escrow Holder may close escrow after that date unless Buyer or Seller has made written demand upon Escrow Holder for the return of monies or documents deposited by them, in which event Escrow Holder is instructed to prepare cancellation instructions. In the event of cancellation, all documents prepared by Escrow Holder will remain unrecorded.

5. All notices, demands and instructions must be in writing. In the event conflicting demands or notices are made or served upon Escrow Holder or any controversy arises between the Parties or with any third person growing out of, or relating to this escrow, Escrow Holder shall have the absolute right to withhold and stop all further proceedings in, and performances of, this escrow, until Escrow Holder receives written notification satisfactory to Escrow Holder of the settlement of the controversy by agreement of the parties thereto, or by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. All of the Parties to this escrow hereby jointly and severally promise and agree to pay promptly on demand, as well as to indemnify Escrow Holder and to hold Escrow Holder harmless from and against, all litigation and interpleader costs, damages, judgments, attorney fees, expenses, obligations and liabilities of every kind which, in good faith, Escrow Holder may incur or suffer in connection with or arising out of this escrow, whether said litigation, interpleader, obligations, liability or expenses arise during the performance of this escrow, or subsequent thereto directly or indirectly.

6. These instructions may be executed in counterparts each of which shall constitute an original regardless of the date of its execution and delivery. All such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same documents.

7. Escrow Holder is hereby authorized to deposit any funds or documents handed to it under these escrow instructions, or cause the same to be deposited, with any duly authorized sub-escrow agent, subject to Escrow Holder's order at or prior to close of escrow, in the event such deposit shall be necessary or convenient for the consummation of this escrow.

8. The Parties authorize Escrow Holder to destroy these instructions and all other instructions and records in this escrow at any time after five (5) years from the close of escrow or a termination of escrow, without liability or further notice.

9. Escrow Holder shall provide copies to Buyer and Seller and their agents of any notices received from the other party or their agents.

10. If there is no action taken on this escrow within six (6) months after the "time limit date" as set forth in the escrow instructions or written extension thereof, Escrow Holder's obligation shall terminate at Escrow Holder's option and all documents, monies or other items held by Escrow Holder shall be returned to the parties depositing same. In the event of cancellation of this escrow, whether it be at the request of any of the principals or otherwise, the fees and charges due Escrow Holder, including expenditures incurred and/or authorized shall be borne equally by the parties hereto (unless otherwise agreed to specifically).

11. Escrow Holder is not to be concerned with the giving of any disclosures except as expressly required by Federal or State law to be given by an escrow agent. Neither is Escrow Holder to be concerned with the effect of zoning ordinances, land division regulations, or building restrictions which may pertain to or affect the land or improvements that are the subject of this escrow. Escrow Holder is not responsible for and shall be held harmless in the event there is a Transfer Fee Covenant recorded on the subject property.

12. The Parties hereto understand Escrow Holder may, upon its sole discretion, rely and act upon facsimile instructions or e-mail, including but not limited, to escrow instructions, amendments or modifications, demands, lender instructions and bills from third parties

13. Escrow Holder shall order payoff statement(s) on existing liens and loans, if applicable, and/or order beneficiary statement(s) on loan(s) of record being taken over by Buyer, comply with lenders' requirements and freeze or close equity lines of credit. Escrow Holder shall charge Seller for any delinquent payments, if applicable.

14. Escrow Holder is authorized to release funds, if applicable, from Buyer's funds on deposit to pay for Credit Reports, Appraisals, City Reports, Lender Statements, Transfer Fees and/or Documents which may be required to be paid in advance. Funds released prior to the close of escrow are non-refundable regardless of the consummation of this escrow.

15. Adjustments and/or prorations called for in this escrow shall be made in the following manner: Prorate taxes on real property, based on the last tax bill in Escrow Holder's possession or on latest available tax figures furnished by the title company; prorate rent per rental statements; make all adjustments and prorations on the basis of a 30-day month.

16. "Close of Escrow", as used in this escrow, means that date on which documents are recorded, unless otherwise specified. All documents and funds due the respective parties are to be mailed to the addresses set out, unless otherwise specified. Escrow Holder's signature on any document and instructions pertaining to this escrow indicate our unconditional approval of same. Escrow Holder shall have no responsibility or liability for any act outside of escrow.

17. The Parties agree to pay escrow fees and charges including messenger fees, overnight delivery charges plus handling, returned deposit and/or returned wire fee and notary fees, if applicable. The Parties irrevocably assign the fees to Escrow Holder, whether this escrow closes or is terminated. In the event of failure to pay any fees or expenses due Escrow Holder hereunder, on demand, the Parties agree to pay Escrow Holder's actual attorney's fees for any attorney services which may be required to collect such fees or expenses.

18. Escrow Holder's duty to act as Escrow Holder shall not commence until instructions, signed by all parties, are received by Escrow Holder.

19. Escrow Holder is authorized to furnish fully signed copies of escrow instructions, supplements, amendments or notices of cancellation, preliminary report and closing statements in this escrow to real estate broker(s) and lender(s) referred to in this escrow. If written objection is filed, Escrow Holder is authorized to hold all money and instruments in this escrow and take no further action until otherwise directed, either by the parties mutual written instructions, or by final order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

21. Due to the Good Funds Law (12413.1) there may be a delay between the time Buyer's new loan is funded, close of escrow (recording), and/or disbursement of Seller's proceeds, dependent upon the manner or form in which Buyer's new loan proceeds are disbursed by lender.
