6. SELLER RIGHTS UNDER THE CCPA

As California residents, Seller(s) have the following rights under the CCPA/CPRA:

Right to Know: Seller(s) may request disclosure of the categories and specific pieces of personal information collected.

Right to Delete: Seller(s) may request deletion of personal information, subject to legal exceptions (e.g., information required for tax reporting or legal compliance cannot be deleted).

Right to Correct: Seller(s) may request correction of inaccurate personal information.

Right to Opt Out of Sale/Sharing: Seller(s) may opt out of the sale or sharing of their personal information. Note that sharing information necessary to complete the real estate transaction is not considered a "sale" under the CCPA.

Right to Non-Discrimination: Seller(s) will not be discriminated against for exercising their CCPA rights.

7. DATA RETENTION

Retention Period:	Transaction records will be retained for a minimum of 5 years from the close of escrow, as required by California Bureau of Real Estate (CalBRE) regulations (10 Cal. Code Regs. §2724).
Tax Records:	Documents related to tax reporting (1099-S, settlement statements) may be retained for up to 7 years in accordance with IRS record-keeping requirements.
Post-Retention:	After the applicable retention period, personal information will be securely destroyed or de-identified.

8. ACKNOWLEDGMENT & SIGNATURES
