Common Interest Community Board
COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION RESALE CERTIFICATE

Section 55.1-2310 of the Resale Disclosure Act in the Code of Virginia requires this standard resale certificate.

The unit being purchased is in a development subject to the Virginia Condominium Act, the Virginia Property Owners' Association Act or the Virginia Real Estate Cooperative Act. Properties subject to these acts are considered "common interest communities" under the law and are governed by common interest community owners' associations ("association"). Units in common interest communities are subject to the Virginia Resale Disclosure Act that requires disclosure of information about the common interest community and its association on this resale certificate.

Under the Resale Disclosure Act, the Common Interest Community Board establishes the fees that may be charged for preparation and delivery of the resale certificate. No association may collect these fees unless the association (i) is registered with the Common Interest Community Board; (ii) is current in filing the most recent annual report and fee with the Common Interest Community Board pursuant to § 55.1-1835, § 55.1-1980, or § 55.1-2182; and (iii) provides the option to receive the resale certificate electronically.

Important Notice for Purchasers

The contract to purchase a unit in a common interest community association is a legally binding document. The purchaser may have the right to cancel the contract after receiving the resale certificate.

The purchaser is responsible for examining the information contained in and provided with this resale certificate. The purchaser may request an update of the resale certificate from the association.

Pursuant to SECTION 55.1-2316 of the Resale Disclosure Act of Virginia, an association may charge fees for preparation, delivery, and expedited delivery of a resale certificate, an updated resale certificate, or financial update and for the inspection of a unit performed to prepare the resale certificate or updated resale certificate. Unless provided otherwise by the association, the appropriate fees shall be paid when the resale certificate, updated resale certificate, or financial update is requested. The seller shall be responsible for all fees associated with the preparation and delivery of the resale certificate, including any fees for inspection of the unit.

The Resale Disclosure Act of Virginia, SECTION 55.1-2310, refers to specific information and statements to be obtained from the unit owners' association and provided to the purchaser prior to the contract date of disposition. This Resale Certificate is in response to those specific requirements.

Any unit owner, either as seller or purchaser, should review carefully this Resale Certificate, including the statements included herein, and all associated documents enclosed. Please consult with your real estate agent or attorney pertaining to any specific questions or concerns.
